The meeting came to order at 6:02 P.M., after which the Board took the following actions: approved minutes of its May 2021 meeting; entered into executive session, on the advice of counsel, to discuss matters related to litigation; agreed to explore venues for the Alabama Dental Hygiene Program (and those venues' seating capacities); authorized expenditures for certain Board members to attend upcoming dental events; agreed to remain members of the American Association of Dental Boards; appointed board member Dr. Marshall Williams to the Joint Interim Commission to Study the Feasibility of Establishing a Second School of Dentistry and/or Increasing the Availability of Dental Services in the Rural Areas of the State; and agreed to begin to return to normal Board governance with the end of the pandemic in sight.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:35 P.M.
